ORDER RE MOTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 951(a), CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

A member seeking to delay or temporarily stay the effect of a prior order of interim suspension imposed pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6102(a) or to obtain an exception thereto should include with any motion made to the Presiding Judge or Review Department of the State Bar Court under rule 951(a) of the California Rules of Court and rule 1400 of the Provisional Rules of Practice of the State Bar Court the following information as part of the member's showing of good cause for relief:

1) The date the member was convicted and whether the member has appealed his or her conviction;

2) What steps the member has taken to prepare for the impending suspension;

3) The nature and extent of the member's current practice of law and the titles, court case numbers and dates of any future hearings, trials or the dates and nature of other important legal events for which clients need representation during the time period the member would be intermly suspended absent the granting of this motion; whether in cases pending before a tribunal, the tribunal has been notified of the member's impending suspension; and whether such legal events may be rescheduled or substitute counsel is available;

4) For each matter for which relief is sought: when the member undertook representation of the client; whether the client has been notified of the conviction, the impending suspension and this motion; and whether the client would be substantially prejudiced by denial of this motion. If feasible, the motion should be accompanied by client declarations in support thereof; and

5) Whether the member has notified the Office of Trials of his or her intended motion; if so, when, to whom and the position of that office, if known, with regard to the requested relief.
